All orders are considered concluded sales and cannot be returned, unless otherwise stated. Returns can only be accepted after a written request to our office. The approval should be included in the shipment and is valid for one month. Returns are on the risk and costs of the customer. All books must arrive in mint condition. The iconic Dome of the Cathedral of Florence, the largest masonry vault in the world, was built by Filippo Brunelleschi between 1420 and 1436. More than 100 years later, between 1572 and 1579, the vault was decorated with frescos by the artists Giorgio Vasari and Federico Zuccari depicting the Last Judgment. Working with advanced imaging technology, total access, and Italy's leading art photographer, this book presents in never-before-seen detail and completeness the entire pictorial cycle of the Dome.

Ontdek in dit extra themanummer van OKV een geheim op het Lam Gods dat honderden jaren verborgen bleef. In het bovenste register van het Lam Gods is op de erdoeken achter Maria en Johannes de Doper tien keer hetzelfde motief (geheel of gedeeltelijk) herhaald. Omdat Van Eyck het brokaat van de erdoeken precies wilde weergeven, maakte hij gebruik van de techniek van het 'gegoten brokaat'.

Het retabel van Jan voor Lubrect OKV Themanummer

This beautiful book in the "500" series celebrates the extraordinary talent of Michelangelo di Lodovico Buonarroti Simoni, arguably the most renowned artist of the Italian Renaissance. 500 years ago, he was 46 years old. He had already completed the Statue of David, the Doni Tondo, the Vatican Pietà, and the Ceiling of the Sistine Chapel. He would later paint the Last Judgement, the frescoes of the Pauline Chapel, and complete the Tomb of Julius II.

Some of the world's greatest and most-loved artists died under the age of forty. But how did they turn relatively short careers into such long legacies? What drove them to create, against all the odds? And how can we use these stories to re-evaluate artists lost to the shadows, or whose legacies are not yet secured? In Bright Stars, Kate Bryan examines the lives and legacies of 30 great artists who died too young.

How is The Colour Code different to other books on colour? Well, the short answer is that it is a whole lot more fun - not least because it is extensively illustrated. We don't just get a story about Mummy Brown (the pigment made from Egyptian mummies), we see a painting created with pigments from the remains of French kings. We are reminded of the blue/gold dress that swept Twitter, view paintings by Mondrian (red ones sell for higher prices) and Van Eyck (he invented an enduring green), ...

Few artists are able to work successfully on both large and small scales, but throughout his career Calder brilliantly moved from the miniature to the monumental and back again. This publication focuses on the enormous stables he created mostly for public places, as well as his elegant hanging mobiles in sheet metal, miniature standing mobiles, and chess sets, shedding light on the social and performative aspects of his work.

EUROPA, OXALÁ

<https://www.exhibitionsinternational.be/documents/catalog/9789723618792.xml>

Europa Oxalà presenteert een zestigtal werken (schilderijen, tekeningen, sculpturen, films, foto's, installaties) van eenentwintig kunstenaars van wie de familieoorsprong in de voormalige koloniën ligt. Deze "children of empires", geboren en getogen in een postkoloniale context, bieden een reflectie op hun erfgoed, hun geheugen en hun identiteit. Hun ouders en grootouders zijn geboren en woonden in Congo, Angola, Guinee, Benin, Algerije, Madagaskar; en deze kunstenaars erfden niet alleen stemmen, geluiden en gebaren, maar ook beelden en herinneringen aan hun culturen van oorsprong, het startpunt van een belangrijk onderzoekswerk in de historische archieven. Door hun werk getuigt Europa Oxalà van de creatieve kracht van de hedendaagse Europese culturele diversiteit, waardoor nieuwe perspectieven worden geopend voor het begrip Europa.

Kunstenaars: Aimé Mpane, Aimé Ntakiyica, Carlos Bunga, Délio Jasse, Djamel Kokene-Dorléans, Fayçal Baghriche, Francisco Vidal, John K Cobra, Katia Kameli, Mohamed Bourouissa, Josèfa Ntjam, Malala Andrialavidrazana, Márcio de Carvalho, Mónica de Miranda, Nú Barreto, Pauliana Valente Pimentel, Pedro AH Paixão, Sabrina Belouaar, Sammy Baloji, Sandra Mujinga, Sara Sadik. De Europa Oxalà-tentoonstelling is te zien in het Mucem in Marseille van 20 oktober 2021 tot 16 januari 2022 en vervolgens in de Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation (Lissabon) van 3 maart tot 30 mei 2022. Ten slotte zal het te zien zijn op het Koninklijk Museum voor Midden-Afrika in Tervuren van 6 oktober 2022 tot 5 maart 2023.

The hour-long epic "Antigone" bespeaks the British-European artist's extraordinary ability to interweave mythological figures, personal history, and chance. Her primary medium is analog film, which she cherishes for its technical versatility and grainy brilliance. Yet she is also a master of other genres and practices such as photography, printmaking, drawing, and writing.

How did the abolitionist movement interact with women's entry into the field of photography? What does the medium have to do with menstrual taboos? Is there even such a thing as a 'feminist image'?

Whether working in the studio or on the front line, women have contributed to every aspect of photography's short history. For some, gender is front and centre; for others, it's merely incidental. All have been affected by the power structures beyond their camera lenses.

In 2019, Guido Guidi and Gerry Johansson - two of the great masters of analog photography in the 20/21st century- took part in the „Verso Nord" photography campaign, which was organized as part of the P=S+N project in Castelfranco, Veneto and the surrounding area. While Guidi focussed his attention on the historic centre of this small town, concentrating on architectural material in order to capture in detail, the layers of history and time, Johansson moved around the area of urban spread.

The catalogue presents over forty works: installations, sculptures, collages, paintings and films. It also puts forward a hypothesis: that Martin Margiela has always been an artist. Internationally renowned in the fashion world since the late 1980s, throughout his career as a designer, he deliberately upended the conventions of fashion one by one, through runway shows, materials and forms that became conceptual and aesthetic revolutions.

While he was still a little boy, Ilyas was stolen from his parents by the German colonial troops. After years away, fighting in a war against his own people, he returns to his village to find his parents gone, and his sister Afiya given away. Another young man returns at the same time. Hamza was not stolen for the war, but sold into it; he has grown up at the right hand of an officer whose protection has marked his life. With nothing but the clothes on his back, he seeks only work and security - and the love of the beautiful Afiya. As fate knots these young people together, as they live and work and fall in love, the shadow of a new war on another continent lengthens and darkens, ready to snatch them up and carry them away.

Comics flourished following the publication of the first Thai comics strip in 1907. Artists borrowed elements from European and American publications, such as Punch magazine, and created uniquely Thai mash-ups. In the 1930s, one artist combined E. C. Segar's Popeye with the codes of local 'likay' theatre, while another used the neoclassical realism introduced by Italian painters appointed at the Siamese court to give eerie form to the folklore pantheon of Thai ghosts.
