I04 - MODERN ART - 20th C

Hét referentiewerk over het futurisme en de Europese avant-garde bewegingen. De tentoonstelling en het boek onderzoeken en tonen voor het eerst de grote invloed van het futurisme op de belangrijkste avant-garde stromingen in Europa tijdens het interbellum: Bauhaus in Duitsland, L'Esprit Nouveau in Frankrijk, het Russische constructivisme en De Stijl in Nederland.

De tentoonstelling 'Futurisme & Europa. De esthetiek van een nieuwe wereld' in het Kröller-Müller Museum in Otterlo kondigt zich aan als een absolute Europese toptentoonstelling. De eerste grote tentoonstelling over het futurisme na "Italian Futurism, 1909-1944: Reconstruction the Universe" in New York in 2014 - met 600.000 bezoekers de best bezochte tentoonstelling in de geschiedenis van het Guggenheim Museum. Het Italiaanse futurisme, geboren in 1909, streeft naar een radicale verjonging van de cultuur, waarin de dynamiek van de moderne samenleving tot uitdrukking komt. Een zoektocht naar een nieuw allesomvattend esthetisch ideaalbeeld in al zijn verschijningsvormen: schilderkunst, architectuur, theater, mode, film, beeldhouwkunst, interieur, design, publiciteit, grafiek kortom een 'totaalkunst' in alle aspecten van het dagelijkse leven.

BIRGER STICHELBAUT en WOUTER GHEYLE, archeologen aan de UGent, ontdekten de filmrol met de foto's in de US National Archives in Maryland (V.S.). Zij helpen je om de vele oorlogsdetails op de foto's thuis te wijzen. Coauteur JEROEN CORNILLY doet hetzelfde, maar dan voor de kustarchitectuur. Hij schreef speciaal voor dit boek het verhaal van 100 jaar kusttoerisme.

1116 - HERITAGE (Belgium)

In dit boek trek je naar de Belgische kust. En keer je terug in de tijd. Naar 4 augustus 1945, een zonnige dag in de eerste zomer na de Tweede Wereldoorlog. De zomer van de vrijheid.

Die dag neemt een Amerikaans legervliegtuig haarscherpe, bijzonder gedetailleerde luchtfoto's van de hele kuststrook, van Knokke tot De Panne. De unieke fotoreeks, een uitzonderlijk tijdsdocument, is recent herontdekt in een Amerikaans archief.

Je ontdekt ze in dit boek. Het is alsof je zelf in het vliegtuig zit... Je ziet de badplaatsen en hun bezoekers baden en genieten in de zon, het strand en de strandcabines, de duinengordel, de havens, het ongerepte en landschappelijk rijke hinterland.

Maar je ziet ook de vele sporen en de littekens van de oorlog die net voorbij is, met daarbij ook de fameuze Duitse Atlantikwall. En je ziet de toenmalige bebouwing aan de kust, in de overgangstijd tussen elitair en massatoerisme. Ook dat maakt de fotoreeks zo uniek.

I05 - CONTEMPORARY ART

Né à Ostende en 1985, Peter Depelchin a grandi à Nieuport et suivi sa formation artistique de dessinateur et de graveur à la Haute Ecole d'art Sint-Lucas à Gand. Animaux fantastiques, dieux et déesses de la mythologie, érotisme païen sont les figures centrales de ses fables graphiques où l'art ancien se mélange au dessin contemporain figuratif.

Passionné par la culture gréco-latine, Depelchin puise son inspiration dans ce fond mythologique de personnages aux destins fabuleux et aux épopées romanesques. Sa curiosité le pousse également à faire des recherches dans des manuscrits du moyen-âge où les enluminures viennent bientôt influencer ses recherches iconographiques. De petits formats, Peter Depelchin passe à des compositions monumentales magistrales sur des papiers qu'il déploie dans son atelier bruxellois.

À travers le dieu Pan, divinité ancienne et mystérieuse, Depelchin explore les questions d'hybridités et de métamorphoses qui veillent en chacun de nous, parfois bien cachées dans les recoins voilés de nos êtres.

Gerd Brabant en Marc Roovers brengen met WIJNLAND DUITSLAND hun eerste boek uit. Een inspirerend boek, dat niet alleen heel wat achtergrond biedt over de wetgeving, geschiedenis en de regio's, maar ook elke wijnregio afzonderlijk belicht. Je vindt er specifieke informatie om elke wijnregio te doorgronden en portretten van wijnbouwers en persoonlijkheden die hen in al die jaren hebben geïnspireerd. En voor de wijntoerist of wandelaar is er in elke regio een uitgebreide wijnwandeltip, adressen van aanbevolen domeinen, restaurants en hotels. De auteurs spreken vanuit een rijke ervaring, de teksten zijn doorspekt met anekdotes en leuke weetjes. In alles zit passie en liefde voor dit bijzondere wijnland verweven. Kortom, een uniek boek om Duitsland als wijnland te begrijpen en te beleven. Nooit eerder werd wijnland Duitsland zo uitgebreid en smaakvol in kaart en beeld gebracht. Een niet te missen naslagwerk voor wijnliefhebbers en sommeliers! Nieuwe herziene editie!

Wijnland Duitsland. Ontdekken, proeven en beleven (nieuwe, herziene editie)

In dit boek maak je kennis met de vijftien Belgische wijnmakers die op vandaag in Zuid-Afrika actief zijn. Ondernemende avonturiers die hun hebben en houden achterlieten om hun geluk te beproeven in de gereputeerde winelands van de Westkaap zoals Stellenbosch, Constantia, Paarl en Franschhoek. Sommige huizen, zoals Almenkerk, Colmant, Droom, Hasher en Spioenkop zijn ondertussen uitgegroeid tot gevestigde waarden, terwijl andere hun plannen nog wat laten rijpen of net hun eerste flessen op de markt hebben. Baie Lekker Wyne laat ons meegenieten van hun persoonlijke verhalen, met als rode draad steeds weer de liefde: een passie voor wijn, maar ook een onvoorwaardelijke liefde voor dat onbeschrijflijk mooie land, haar onvergetelijke natuur, de mensen én de heerlijke gastvrijheid van Zuid-Afrika. Maya Strobbe, auteur van Vrouwen maken de wijn, wijncolumnist voor verschillende magazines en wijnimporteur schetst oprechte portretten. Dit boek is een must voor liefhebbers van Zuid-Afrikaanse wijnen en een lust voor het oog dankzij de prachtige fotografie van Jan D'Hondt

II03 - ARCHITECTURE (monographies)

Ce livre consacré à quelques oeuvres majeures de Horta à l'époque de l'Art Nouveau, se veut un témoignage non seulement d'un art de bâtir mais aussi d'un art de vivre neuf dans la civilisation urbaine de la fin du xix^e siècle. Les photos de Jacques Evrard et Christine Bastin font découvrir des maisons et hôtels de maître rarement ouverts au public pour certains d'entre eux et révèlent leur beauté retrouvée après de longues et minutieuses campagnes de restauration. Le texte qui accompagne les photos est une invitation discrète à contempler l'extraordinaire univers architectural de Victor Horta.

Horta

Habitations majeures à Bruxelles

De prachtige foto's van Jacques Evrard en Christine Bastin, met wie ik meermaals de eer had samen te werken voor diverse werken over art nouveau en Horta in het bijzonder, werpen niet alleen een blik op de bouwkunst, maar getuigen ook van een nieuwe levenskunst in de stedelijke omgeving van het einde van de negentiende eeuw. Ze willen de lezer laten meegenieten van deze woningen die niet zomaar voor iedereen toegankelijk zijn.

Dit boek wil de verschillende fasen van de constructie van de gebouwen en van hun ebruik in het Jubelpark in Brussel belichten - van 1880 tot vandaag. Standbeelden en monumenten, maar ook de geschiedenis van de grote instellingen die er gevestigd zijn, worden besproken in tekst en beeld. Het verhaal van wereldtentoonstellingen wordt er gekoppeld aan de geschiedenis van België en aan het dagelijkse leven in het park de dag van vandaag, aan de hand van vele onuitgegeven documenten.

II16 - HERITAGE (Belgium)

Parmi les nabis, Édouard Vuillard (1868-1940), « le nabi à la barbe rousse », est certainement celui qui posséda le plus grand nombre d'estampes ukiyo-e. Il en réunit jusqu'à cent quatre-vingt. Inspirées des paysages du Japon, de geishas ou d'acteurs de kabuki, elles sont signées des maîtres de la gravure sur bois. C'est vraisemblablement la grande exposition consacrée à l'art du Japon par l'École des Beaux-Arts en 1890 qui a décidé Vuillard à s'intéresser à une esthétique jusqu'alors négligée par les circuits académiques. Pas plus que les maîtres de l'ukiyo-e, Vuillard ne prétend délivrer d'autre message que la célébration de la vie quotidienne et de la nature. De 1890 à la Première Guerre mondiale, les références à l'art japonais imprègnent profondément son oeuvre de peintre, de dessinateur et de lithographe. Sans faire de concession à un exotisme très galvaudé, il enrichit son art en adoptant librement les codes mis à l'honneur au pays du Soleil-Levant.

103 - 19th CENTURY ART

In 2023 zal het 150 jaar geleden zijn dat Yvonne Serruys geboren werd in Menen, en 70 jaar nadat zij overleed in Parijs. Daar trok de kunstenaar omstreeks 1900 voorgoed naartoe, na een opleiding bij schilders Emile Claus en Georges Lemmen. Ze maakte al snel de overstap naar de beeldhouwkunst en maakte hierin carrière, beginnend met statuettes en sierobjecten in glaspasta. Jaarlijks nam ze deel aan de Salons in Parijs en elders, als exposant en soms ook als jurylid.

I20 - PHOTOGRAPHY - MUSIC

Al 40 jaar fotografeert gie Knaeps de meest vermaarde bands op internationale rockpoda, voornamelijk voor Humo. Hoog tijd voor een overzicht van een rijkgevulde carrière, met een dito geïllustreerd boek!

Net op tijd voor de festivalzomer katapulteert deze uitgave naar zonovergoten (of doorregende) festivalweides, van Roch Werchter tot Roskilde, en groezelige (maar gezellige) clubs. gie Knaeps was erbij in de hoogdagen van Lou Reed en David Bowie in de jaren '70, was getuige van het iconische concert van Nirvana op Pukkelpop en bleef in de front stage bij Muse, PJ Harvey en Amy Winehouse. Het resultaat zijn niets minder dan fascinerende concertfoto's, vol beweging, grinta en passie, of juist heel intiem, die een kunstvorm op zich zijn en de lezer/ kijker getuigen laten zijn van wat altijd een uniek gegeven is: het rockoptreden hier en nu.

Met een inleiding van Serge Simonart en met foto's van o.a. New Order, Lady Gaga, Levellers, Madonna, Kraftwerk, K's Choice, Justin Timberlake, Kanye West, James Brown, Jane Birkin, Hooverphonic, Grateful Dead, Ike and Tina Turner, Foo Fighters, Faithless, De La Soul, dEUS, De Kreuners, Diana Ross, Guns 'n Roses, Nick Cave, Moloko, R.E.M., Pixies, Prince, en zoveel anderen!

Het Gentse nachtcafé Hotsy Totsy bestaat een halve eeuw. Met zijn interieur geïnspireerd op de roaring twenties werd het een pleisterplek voor een kleurrijk en gemengd publiek, van kunstenaars en wetenschappers tot vriendenkende drinkbroers, die zich thuis voelden in die warme cocon. Aan het roer stonden Motte en Guido Claus, een vorstelijk duo dat het woelige schip elke keer weer door de nacht laveerde, met landelijke renomme en echo's tot in de Amsterdamse grachtengordel toe. Daar zal de aanwezigheid van Guido's broer, Hugo Claus, zeker een rol in gespeeld hebben... In dit boek vertellen we de geschiedenis van het café en graven 35 notoire Hotsy Totsy-gangers in hun herinneringen. Onder meer Jessie De Caluwe, Kurt Van Eeghem, Herman Brusselmans, Josse De Pauw, Pjeroo Roobjee, Frank Liefoghe, Herman Balthazar, Guido Lauwaert, Vera Vermeersch, Zaki, Mugo en Jean Paul van Bendegem getuigen. Zij brengen een ode aan het café dat een rol in hun leven speelde, maar ook aan Motte, die nu 78 is. De eigenaars zijn nu veranderd, het interieur hetzelfde gebleven. Hoe dan ook is een halve eeuw Hotsy Totsy een reden om te vieren, en een zegen voor het mensdom.

Les Amis du Musée Guimet
Cent ans d'histoire partagée

Fondé en 1889 par l'industriel et collectionneur Émile Guimet (1836-1918), le musée Guimet était à l'origine pensé pour être un musée de l'histoire des religions. La Société des Amis du musée Guimet (SAMG) était créée dans le but de regrouper autour de l'institution donateurs, collectionneurs privés, collaborateurs, scientifiques et mécènes désireux de participer activement à l'enrichissement des collections, grâce au financement d'acquisitions ou de restaurations d'oeuvres.

Au début des années 50, elle s'installe à Vallauris et y épouse Jean Rivier. Ils travaillent ensemble jusqu'à leur séparation en 1961. Vallauris est alors un haut lieu de l'art et de la céramique, elle y fréquente Picasso ou encore son neveu Javier Vilato. Dans cette effervescence créative, son oeuvre est prolifique : souvent créatrice de pièces utilitaires

Visa pour l'image est un festival international de photojournalisme créé en 1989, par Roger Théron, le directeur de la rédaction de Paris-Match. Il en avait confié l'organisation à Michel Decron, directeur du journal Photo du groupe Filipacchi. Dirigé par Jean-François Leroy, Visa pour l'image se déroule chaque année dans toute la ville de Perpignan, de fin août à mi-septembre pour une durée de quinze jours, plus une 3e semaine réservée aux scolaires.

Voor de eerste overzichtstentoonstelling van het oeuvre van Michaelina Wautier (1614–1689) slaan twee stedelijke musea de handen in mekaar, een unieke samenwerking tussen het Rubenshuis en het MAS. De expositie demonstreert in wereldpremière het uitzonderlijke talent van een kunstenaar die groot werd in een periode waarin vrouwelijke artiesten zeer zeldzaam waren. Haar werk is zo veelzijdig en uniek dat het alle kunsthistorische verbeelding tart.

Fashion not only provided an income and international recognition for Man Ray but also influenced his visual language. That vocabulary had been nurtured from an early age by dressmaking attributes that must un-avoidably carry more meaning for a tailor's son than for someone else. His images of mannequins and fragmented body parts were consistent with the visual language of the Surrealists, and were, under the influence of his fashion photography, not only uncanny but also aesthetically appealing.

Ce livre en collaboration avec l'artiste donne un aperçu des peintures et dessins de la période de 1965 à 2022 et quelques-unes de ses gravures et lithographies les plus importantes.

Dit boek in samenwerking met de kunstenaar geeft een overzicht van van de schilderijen en tekeningen van de periode van 1965 tot 2022 en enkele van zijn belangrijkste etsen en lithografieën.

In galleries verspreid over de hele wereld kan je zijn oeuvre terugvinden. En ook zijn recentere werk blijft even fris en verbluffend. De overstap naar de 21ste eeuw heeft Alechinsky moeiteloos gezet en dat maakt dat hij een plaats verdient naast andere grote Belgische kunstenaars zoals James Ensor, Paul Delvaux en René Magritte.

Geen centimeter op zijn drager blijft gespaard. Rond het verhaal dat hij in zijn werk vertelt, voegt Alechinsky zogenaamde 'kanttekeningen' toe. Samuel vond druk op snee daarom de uitgelezen techniek om in het kunstboek Alechinsky te verwerken

II16 - HERITAGE (Belgium)

De Gentse Universiteitsbibliotheek met de beroemde Boekentoren, die door Henry Van de Velde in de jaren 1930 werd ontworpen, werd onlangs heropend na een lange restauratiecampagne. Hoewel de tentoonstelling Beelden van de Boekentoren inspeelt op dit heuglijke feit, schenkt zij niet zozeer aandacht aan het gebouw zelf maar eerder aan de rijke beeldvorming ervan. De bibliotheekentoren werd in de loop der jaren immers uitvoerig gevisualiseerd door toonaangevende fotografen zoals Lucien Hervé en Candida Höfer terwijl kunstenaars als Jan De Cock en Anne Teresa De Keersmaecker er installaties of dansvoorstellingen realiseerden die met behulp van foto's en films werden geregistreerd.

Door meerdere beelden van hetzelfde gebouw te confronteren maakt deze expositie een veelvoud aan architecturale representatietechnieken duidelijk: van de typische modernistische architectuurfoto's die Emile Sergysels in de jaren 1930 maakte tot de recente exploraties door Aglaia Konrad. Daarnaast koppelt de expositie architectuurfotografie aan een ruime waaier van andere artistieke en fotografische praktijken zoals documentaire fotografie, street photography, modefotografie, fotojournalistiek, amateurfoto's, schilderkunst, video, et cetera – met, uiteraard, de Boekentoren als rode draad.

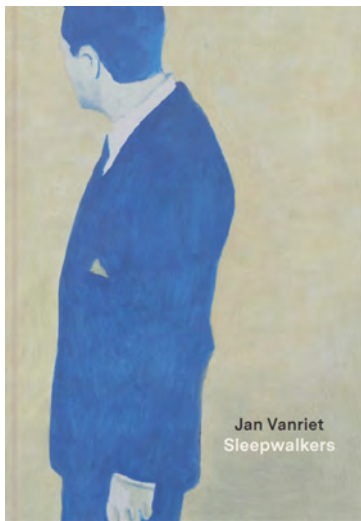

Met werk van Kristien Daem, Jan De Cock, Walter De Mulder, Carl De Keyzer, Geert Goiris, Lucien Hervé, Candida Höfer, Jan Kempnaers, Aglaia Konrad, François Schuiten, Emile Sergysels en vele anderen.

Wat gaat er vooraf aan architectuur? Architect-kunstenaar Malgorzata Maria Olchowska (° Bartoszyce, 1982) onderzoekt hoe persoonlijke en collectieve herinneringen onze kijk op de gebouwde omgeving beïnvloeden. Volgens Olchowska staat er geen limiet op de weerbaarheid van steden: "Steden gaan op en neer, dat zien we nu bij de oorlog in Oekraïne of bij de aardbeving in Turkije en Syrië. Stadswijken die nu in puin liggen, worden vroeg of laat weer opgebouwd."

Monnikenheide in Zoersel is een woonzorg-centrum voor personen met een verstandelijke beperking. Een bijzondere plek voor bijzondere mensen, die in dit boek voor het eerst wordt bekeken vanuit een architecturaal perspectief. In de vijftigjarige bouwgeschiedenis van Monnikenheide gingen telkens andere architecten op zoek naar de ruimtelijke mogelijkheden binnen het leidmotief van de inclusie. Zo ontstond een uniek landschap dat de grenzen van de zorgarchitectuur ruim overstijgt.

Raoul Servais est l'un des cinéastes belges les plus inventifs du 20e siècle. Né à Ostende en 1928, Raoul Servais est encore jeune lorsqu'il est plongé dans la Seconde Guerre mondiale. Un témoignage unique et personnel, qu'il partage maintenant avec nous tous ! Pieter Trogh, du In Flanders Fields Museum lève un coin du voile sur certains aspects traités par Servais et les replace dans leur contexte historique.

Raoul Servais
Souvenirs de guerre

Het In Flanders Fields Museum stelde met Raoul Servais en Raoul Servais Collection een tentoonstelling samen die focust op het thema oorlog in zijn leven en werk. De expo bevat naast de projectie van de kortfilms Chromophobia (1965), Operation X-70 (1971), Tank (2015) en het recente Der Lange Kerl (2022), tekeningen, schilderijen en objecten uit de Servais-collecties. Servais' interpretatie van de thematiek oogt tijdloos en schaaft zich zelfverzekerd bij het koor van stemmen tegen oorlog.

Oorlogsherinneringen

Tussen 1931 en 1935 reisde Simenon veel en legde een wereld vast op beeld die gedoemd was te verdwijnen. Met zijn foto's brengt hij een verhaal dat verschilt van zijn teksten. Georges Simenon (Luik 1903 - Lausanne 1989) is de best verkochte en meest vertaalde Franstalige romanschrijver van de twintigste eeuw. Tussen 1931 en 1935 reisde Simenon, schepper van de legendarische Maigret, de wereld rond. Hij schreef reportages en romans en maakte duizenden foto's, vaak van erg goede kwaliteit.

Georges Simenon.
Beelden van een wereld in crisis

Georges Simenon (Liège 1903 - Lausanne 1989) est le romancier de langue française le plus vendu, traduit et adapté du vingtième siècle. Connu mondialement comme reporter et romancier, Simenon était également un passionné de la photographie. Au travers de ses nombreux voyages, effectués entre 1931 et 1935, il a capturé sur pellicule un monde voué à la disparition.

Ce livre examine, trente ans après la parution de L'Éloge de l'inconfort (CFC - Éditions, 1992) consacré à la décennie fondatrice des années 80, les peintures, les dessins, les lithographies et les livres d'artistes produits entre 1990 et 2013. Continuant à peindre dans la perspective qu'on lui connaît, Camille De Taeye a poussé toujours plus loin sa « chirurgie des apparences », rouage d'une déstabilisation du visible et miroir jusqu'au bout de son monde bouleversé. Une chirurgie qui nous questionne aujourd'hui comme hier.

She gathers memories, snippets, images, thanks to which she composes narratives, clothes, installations of real or fictitious identities intersect, assemble and settle. In this way, the artist reveals the fragility of our constructions, as much as she reassures us thanks to the care she attaches to each element, with a protective softness.

His approach, which straddles the line between art and science, offers a real experience of research as well as perception. What colour do we see? What modifies it? Through this exploration, he questions our sense of reality, and opens up a

This book, illustrated with rare and original documents, tells the story of FARM PROD, a Brussels collective of cosmopolitan street artists. About twenty years ago, a few graphic communication students decided to share a working and living space by settling in an isolated farmhouse that would soon become a buzzing hive of creativity. This was the birth of one of the most original formations in urban art in recent years. From squats to artists' studios, we follow the progress of a close-knit team...

Chez Mémé est un album qui raconte les souvenirs d'une petite fille lors de ses vacances chez sa grand-mère dans sa toute petite maison du Morbihan à la fin des années 70. Dans cette maison au confort inexistant, dans le jardin, parmi les animaux domestiques, Catherine et ses soeurs vivent leurs aventures du quotidien et nous font partager la vie à la campagne avec une grand-mère à la personnalité attachante dans un monde sans chichis.

L'abécédaire queer de Lison Ferné se veut une exploration du corps masculin, inspirée de la haute couture et de la mode fétichiste. Histoires et géographies est le premier livre consacré au travail de l'artiste français Erwan Mahéo. L'ouvrage est pensé comme un manuel ou un guide du visiteur. Chacune des œuvres et des expositions présentées fait l'objet d'un texte spécifique, une suite de récits dans lesquels se mêlent des souvenirs de lieux, de situations et des descriptions d'œuvres qui cartographient le parcours de l'artiste.

L'une des marques de fabrique du contemporain littéraire réside dans son investissement du réel, conçu comme un espace à arpenter et documenter, un terrain d'enquêtes plus ou moins exotiques, et une matrice de l'écriture. De ce projet général, cet essai met au jour un aspect singulier car il porte sur des textes s'élaborant à partir de protocoles d'action, qui orientent les gestes de leurs auteurs et autrices, et les modalités de leur écriture.

I20 - PHOTOGRAPHY

Les sixties... un air de liberté flotte, l'émancipation devient un sujet central, les guerres coloniales françaises s'achèvent enfin, les hippies clament la paix sur terre. Les fleurs deviennent un motif de puissance, inondant de couleur les robes, les chemises et les jupes qui raccourcissent. [...] On découvre le blues, le folk et le rock : on chante, danse et bouge autrement. La Nouvelle Vague déferle avec force, changeant le regard sur le cinéma et la vie. Bernard Plossu, jeune photographe qui se rêve aussi cinéaste, arpente la capitale, projetant sans doute de la mettre en scène comme savent si bien le faire Godard ou Truffaut. Entre 1961 et 1968, il filme Paris en 8 mm, sous tous les angles, dans divers quartiers, captant l'ancien comme le nouveau - et même ce qui est en cours de construction ! De ces films ont été tirés des photogrammes ; arrêts sur image comme autant d'instantanés parvenant jusqu'à nous avec leurs ailes de papillon pour nous souffler doucement au visage ce que fut l'air de ce temps...

Les paysages de l'âme, les songes et cauchemars du symbolisme imaginés par Lalique, Fouquet ou Carabin, de même que les formes et motifs empruntés à la Renaissance d'Eugène Grasset ou Lucien Gaillard cèdent la place à une faune et une flore issues d'un nouvel imaginaire biologique, aquatique et sous-marin, nourries par la vulgarisation des grandes découvertes scientifiques et de la pensée évolutionniste. Vever, Lalique, Boucheron, Fouquet ou Nocq introduisent des matériaux nouveaux.

A modernist take on Mediterranean aesthetics, this new movement in interior design embraces sumptuous minimalism through warm, earthy tones, and natural materials. A welcoming, new, down-to-earth minimalism is gaining momentum in home interiors, from California to Morocco, Portugal to Mexico. This trend combines folkloric influences with a rustic aesthetic, taking cues from arid landscapes to embrace warmth, light, and organic elements.

This book presents OFFICE projects through a critical analysis based on archive documents. It also reconstructs the influence of OFFICE's creative principles among the new generations of architects. The OFFICE projects appeared in the early 2000s and gained prominence as new forms of digital collage with a cultural engagement. The author traces the evolution of their early ideas developed as paper architecture to the current buildings of a significant scale and presence.

Features Balthus' engagement with surface as both a material and a psychological quality, and offering new perspectives on the artist's use of vibrant layers of colour underneath his compositions, and the sexual politics implied. Exercising meticulous control over the form and placement of models, their bodily gestures, as well as the domestic or rural settings in which they reside, Balthus sought to create, at least in appearance, dreamlike scenarios, absent of time and devoid of emotional expression.

George Grosz created his last major series of paintings and watercolors, the "Stick Men", beginning in the mid-1940s in reaction to the devastating news about the Holocaust and the other atrocities of the Second World War. The deployment of atomic bombs at the end of the war, and the threat of a Third World War, further deepened his pessimistic vision of mankind's future.

The catalog examines the oeuvre of Eduardo Chillida on the basis of 89 works, tracing his artistic development and describing his artistic language. In addition to his sculptures and some public works, focus is primarily laid on the artist's hanging paper works- the "Gravitations". The Basque artist, born in San Sebastián, is considered to be a master of abstract sculpture and is one of the most important sculptors of the 20th century. He became known as creator of monumental sculpture in public spaces.

The publication presents an original dialogue between the Mexican photographs of Helen Levitt and those of Henri Cartier-Bresson. The two photographers first met in New York in the spring of 1935. Cartier-Bresson had just spent a year in Mexico, while the American had only just started photographing the theater of New York street life. In 1941, fascinated by Cartier-Bresson's work, Levitt decided to visit the same destination.

I20 - PHOTOGRAPHY

Héritiers de la tradition biblique et de la culture gréco-latine qu'ils envisagent dans une perspective chrétienne, les médiévaux définissent la musique comme la représentation ici-bas de l'ordre du monde. Science du nombre « rendu audible », l'ars musica devient, dans un mouvement ascensionnel, la voie d'accès à la connaissance divine. Mais la musique est aussi « naturelle », proclamation d'une parole - chant liturgique ou poésie courtoise - et à ce titre elle a recours aux sciences du langage, à la rhétorique. Dans ce volume, la beauté et la diversité des musiques du Moyen Âge sont mises en lumière par le prisme des arts qui les incarnent : musique sacrée des chantes ; musique profane composée et chantée par les troubadours, les ménestrels ou les goliards. La musique joue une étonnante partition, anime portails et chapiteaux, enlumine les marges des manuscrits, rythme les compositions des chansonniers, s'épanouit dans tous les domaines de l'art.

105 - CONTEMPORARY ART

The volume is dedicated to the work of Jenny Saville (Cambridge, 1970), one of the greatest contemporary painters and a leading voice in the international art scene. Saville transcends the limits between figurative and abstract, between informal and gestural, managing to transfigure the news into a universal image, which puts the human figure at the center of the history of art. Huge, naked bodies, with a carnal physicality and oppressed by a weight that is more existential than material, Saville is linked to the great European pictorial tradition in constant comparison with the modernism of Willem de Kooning and Cy Twombly and the portraiture of Pablo Picasso and Francis Bacon. Her work also outlines a strong correlation with the masters of the Italian Renaissance, in particular with some of Michelangelo's great masterpieces. The volume contains a rich catalogue of paintings and drawings from the 1990s to today.

The book unfolds from a three-day conference organised by Antonio Cataldo and Adrià Julià in 2020 at the Faculty of Fine Art, Music and Design at the University of Bergen and Fotogalleriet, Oslo. The conference found common but fragile ground amid a global health crisis. From there, it managed to catapult discussion and explore in depth the need to print and publish photobooks. Each contribution discloses a unique relationship to photobooks and publishing.

Seeds of Knowledge highlights the collection of 15th to 17th-century European printed herbals of Dr. Peter Goop (Liechtenstein). Herbals were highly illustrated, critical texts to doctors and lay healthcare providers that included both the folkloric and medicinal uses of plants. These books were working manuals and frequently annotated by readers with notes of herbal recipes/medicines or other uses not found in the printed text. Dr. Goop's collection is one of the most extensive in private hands.

The volume focuses on the material history of Fascist-era works of art, monuments and architecture in Italy, and examines their afterlife and reception in the longue durée. Probing the theoretical concept of 'difficult heritage' in relation to the peculiarities of the Italian case, and in a comparative perspective with other nations, the volume addresses issues of restoration, display, and critical preservation of Fascist-era artefacts located in public and institutional spaces.

Le Maître du Roman de la Rose de Vienne désigne par convention un enlumineur actif à Lyon entre 1425 et 1465. Il doit son nom à un manuscrit du Roman de la Rose conservé à la Bibliothèque nationale autrichienne (Cod.2568). Sous la direction de Frédéric Elsig, ce 4e volume de la collection "Les ressuscités de l'histoire de l'art" à la suite de "Les Changelnet" retrace le parcours et les oeuvres réalisées par ce maître.

I01 - ANCIENT ART

Le tatouage japonais est un art à part entière, considéré comme l'un des ornements corporels les plus accomplis au monde. Sa pratique remonte à la période d'Edo (1603-1868) et a évolué vers une ornementation toujours plus élaborée et riche de figures symboliques. Ce chemin esthétique est l'indice d'une société valorisant la force et le courage et le signe d'une contestation silencieuse, dans une société contrainte par le shogunat des Tokugawa. Le tatouage s'intègre alors à la culture de l'estampe, du livre et du théâtre kabuki. Mais la prohibition du tatouage à la fin du XIXe siècle efface en partie la mémoire de ce phénomène. Après les années 1960, le cinéma s'empare de cet héritage et en associe durablement l'image aux yakuzas, les membres des bandes du crime organisé. C'est pourquoi dans l'imaginaire collectif, au Japon (et ailleurs) le tatouage demeure encore associé aux gangs et à la défiance envers le pouvoir.

L'âge d'or : sans doute le mythe antique qui a le plus inspiré philosophes, poètes et artistes. Relaté par Hésiode et Ovide, il raconte ce moment suspendu, à l'aube de l'humanité, quand les humains vivaient en paix avec eux-mêmes, en parfaite harmonie avec les dieux et la nature. Une nature encore bienfaisante et abondante. Ce rêve de bonheur s'incarne différemment selon les époques et les sociétés. Après sa pleine vitalité durant l'Antiquité, le mythe traverse le Moyen Âge. Puis, à partir de la fin du XVe siècle jusqu'au XVIIe siècle, il connaît un véritable retour en grâce : invoqué par les princes, représenté par les artistes, il est cité à profusion dans les textes tant poétiques qu'apologétiques. Mais à partir du XVIIIe siècle, le mythe de l'âge d'or va connaître une sorte de déclin.

Originaire de Mailly en Champagne et documenté à Avignon de 1533 à 1561, le peintre Simon de Châlons nous a laissé une abondante production, souvent signée et datée. Collaborateur, à ses débuts, du peintre Henri Guigues, il retient de ce dernier un usage constant des modèles gravés de Raphaël qui, combinés à ceux d'un Dürer ou d'un Lucas de Leyde, créent un langage italianisant apprécié d'une large clientèle de nobles, patriciens et ecclésiastiques.

101 - OLD MASTERS

The most ambitious and comprehensive book on women's vintage fashion ever published, featuring over 1,000 garments dating from the 1920s to the 1980s.

This is not just another history of fashion: it is a survey of how fashion past continues to inspire fashion present. It features over 1,000 stand-out pieces, together with over 300 contextual illustrations, dating from the 1920s to the 1980s, including many icons of vintage fashion, from Marilyn Monroe's bra to the Ossie Clark dress made so famous by David Hockney's painting. Each garment is explored from the viewpoint of the contemporary fashionista looking to build a vintage wardrobe.

The book is organized into three main sections. 'Decades' explores the shapes and fabrics that define the look of each period.

Considered one of the greatest exponents of staged photography, Gregory Crewdson has drawn a portrait of middle America, enclosed in the intermediate spaces of modest-sized cities, an America with eyes wide open towards the lights of a dream in exhaustion, already exhausted, already dilapidated. This book brings together for the first time the trilogy conceived between 2012 and 2022. It unfolds an unprecedented vision of a decade of creation and reveals the intimate and political sides of the universe ...

Berthe Morisot won over the impressionists with her talent and became the first woman of the group alongside Monet, Degas, and Renoir. She was the foremost female painter of the impressionist movement and, to quote Apollinaire, "one of the most complete artists of her day." Underestimated for more than a century, today her works demonstrate how visionary she was, pioneering a new style of painting. Including correspondence with key members of the impressionist movement...

This book examines a selection of paintings by Bernardino Luini (ca. 1480/85-1532) that were influenced by Leonardo da Vinci (1452-1519). Comparative analysis shows that Luini, from adopting Leonardo's compositions and motifs, went on to incorporate elements of his style and expression in a group of works dating to the 1520s. These are the focus of the book. In imitating Leonardo, Luini traded complexity for clarity, simplifying his manner and making it accessible to a broad audience undifferentiated by age

A major reassessment of Germaine Richier's work and impact on 20th-century sculpture. Germaine Richier (1902-59) occupies a central position in the history of modern sculpture. Predominantly working in bronze, her art revitalized the form of the figure, forging radical new images of men and women in the post-war period which blended the human body and natural forms in a hybrid of abstraction and figuration.

1107C - SPORTS & LEISURE - CARS

Simon de Burton journeys through some of the most coveted cars of the twentieth century. From the Alfa Romeo 6C to the Porsche 996 GT3, the author has chosen cars from each decade from the 1930s to the early 2000s, his choices made from the perspective of the enthusiast and collector. All are considered 'milestone' cars and all have risen substantially in value in the past five to ten years. They are not all necessarily the fastest, rarest or most valuable cars, but they are all highly significant and highly regarded. These are the cars that should have been bought when they were new and kept for the future - now that they are truly desired. Features cars from across the varied spans of time, price and purpose, including: Lancia Lambda, Austin Seven, Volkswagen Beetle, Jaguar C-Type, Citroen DS19, Ford Mustang, DeLorean DMC 12, McLaren F1.

Hanging on the walls of galleries around the world are hundreds of works titled Portrait of A Girl. But what is the purpose of a Portrait of A Girl? What should she do and who is she for? These are the questions that writer Claire Marie Healy explores in Girlhood.

Expressions of girlhood are shaped by art and visual culture as much as they are represented by them. Claire Marie Healy explores this relationship, guiding us through the making and meaning of girlhood in Britain's national collection of art.

Artist and writer Sean Burns explores the nature of death and its tangled relationships with life and love as depicted in art. Death haunts art. It lurks in the shadows of Edward Collier's Still Life as a reminder of our fragile mortality. It overcomes all in Francis Bacon's Triptych and Anna Lea Merritt's Love Locked Out.

From personal responses to general meditations on the fleeting transience of life, Sean Burns looks at the breadth of historical and contemporary works in Britain's national collection

Award-winning author, poet and podcaster Derek Owusu asks: what does faith mean and what does it look like in art? Faith is a subject that has shaped the art world in Britain for as long as it has existed. The walls of Tate's galleries exhibit paintings like John Martin's The Last Judgement and The Great Day of His Wrath - both dramatic scenes that foretell apocalyptic destruction and biblical catastrophe. But faith can also exist in the small tender glimpses of hope, of love and joy.

A full career retrospective of one of the greatest and most popular living artists, lavishly illustrated with works from across the artist's six-decade career David Hockney has been delighting and challenging audiences for almost sixty years. Working in an extraordinarily wide range of media with equal measures of wit and intelligence, his art has examined, probed and questioned how the perceived world of movement, space and time can be captured in two dimensions.

The Story of Russia begins in the first millennium, when Russia's lands were initially settled by the Slavs, and ends with Putin in the present day. From Boris and Gleb, the first saints of the Russian Church, to the crowning of sixteen-year-old Ivan the Terrible in a candlelit cathedral; and from Catherine the Great, riding out in a green uniform to arrest her husband at his palace, to the bitter last days of the Romanovs.

The Art of the Straight Line captures the energy of Lou Reed's worlds of Tai Chi, music, and meditation. It was edited by his wife, the artist Laurie Anderson.

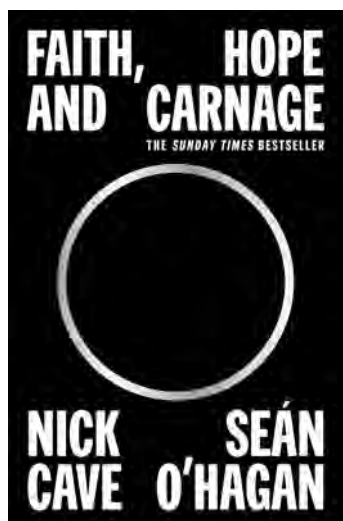

Lou Reed was a musician, singer, songwriter, poet, and founding member of the legendary rock band the Velvet Underground. He collaborated with many artists, from Andy Warhol and John Cale to Robert Wilson and Metallica. Reed had a groundbreaking solo career that spanned five decades until his death in 2013.

Created from more than forty hours of intimate conversations with the journalist Seán O'Hagan, this is a profoundly thoughtful exploration, in Cave's own words, of what really drives his life and creativity.

The book examines questions of belief, art, music, freedom, grief and love. It draws candidly on Cave's life, from his early childhood to the present day, his loves, his work ethic and his dramatic transformation in recent years.

At the end of the fifteenth century, Burgundy was extinguished as an independent state. It had been a fabulously wealthy, turbulent region situated between France and Germany, with close links to the English kingdom. Torn apart by the dynastic struggles of early modern Europe, this extraordinary realm vanished from the map. But it became the cradle of what we now know as the Low Countries, modern Belgium and the Netherlands.

Feminism is the insight that sexism exists, and the struggle against that oppression. The Penguin Book of Feminist Writing is a global anthology of feminist writers, edited and introduced with a major new essay by Hannah Dawson.

Beginning in the fifteenth century with Christine de Pizan, who imagined a City of Ladies that would serve as a refuge from the harassment of men, the book reaches around the earth and through the years to us, now, splashing about in the fourth wave.

Today, we are replacing these productive, private spaces with monolithic platforms. Why did the Arab Spring fall apart and Occupy Wall Street never gain traction? Has Black Lives Matter lived up to its full potential? Beckerman reveals what this new social media ecosystem still needs - from patience to focus - and offers a recipe for growing radical ideas again.

114 - NON-FICTION

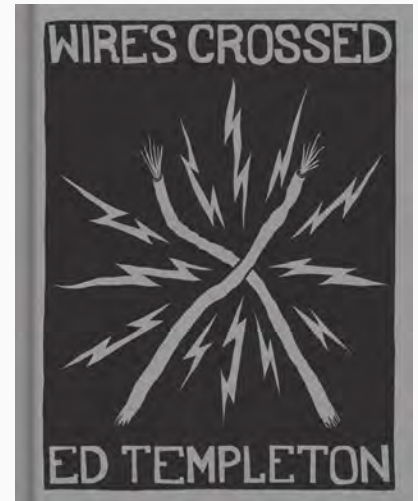

Part memoir, part document of the DIY, punk-infused subculture of skateboarding as it came of age in the 1990s and early 2000s, Ed Templeton's Wires Crossed pulses with the raw, combusive energy of Templeton's image-making from the last twenty-plus years.

Illustrated by photographs, collages, texts, maps, and other ephemera from Templeton's journals, Wires Crossed offers an insider's look at a subculture in the making and reflects the unique aesthetic stamp that sprang from the skate world he helped create.

Templeton occupies the rare position of having been a professional skateboarder, a two-time World Skateboarding champion, as well as a photographer and artist working within the skateboard community as it gained increasing cultural currency in the 1990s and beyond. His work first gained recognition as part of the Beautiful Losers collective loosely gathered around Aaron Rose's Alleged Gallery on Manhattan's Lower East Side.

This work, much of it previously unpublished and unseen, explores Templeton's own journey as an image maker, as well as the lives of professional skateboarders as they spent long hours crisscrossing the world on tour, reveling in their newfound status as rock star-like figures and the eternal search for new terrain to skate.

The timeframe of these photographs, taken between 1979 and 1986, marked a time when post-Stonewall exuberance--the grudging acceptance and tolerance of a life and culture once criminalized--flowered and overflowed in concentrated areas (San Francisco, the West Village, Fire Island) and life was out, in public and in the street. It was a community and world unto itself, before that world became torn apart by the epidemic onslaught to come.

85% of photojournalists are men. That means almost everything that is reported in the world is seen through men's eyes. Similarly, spaces and communities men don't have access to are left undocumented and forgotten. With the camera limited to the hands of one gender, photographic 'truth' is more subjective than it seems. To answer this serious ethical problem, Women Photograph flips that bias on its head to show what and how women and nonbinary photojournalists see.

Photography has never been so easy; nor has it ever been so hard. Digital cameras and smartphones can deliver perfect exposures and pin-sharp focus time after time, but the tech alone won't create draw-dropping imagery, or supply the sort of photos that stand out in a sea of online visual overload.

A fun and fact-filled introduction to the dismissed Black art masters and models who shook the world.

Elegant. Refined. Exclusionary. Interrupted. The foundations of the fine art world are shaking. Beyoncé and Jay-Z break the internet by blending modern Black culture with fine art in their iconic music video filmed in the Louvre. Kehinde Wiley powerfully subverts European masterworks. Calls resonate for diversity in museums and the resignations of leaders of the old guard.

The Subtle Art of Not Giving a F*ck Journal is divided into five sections that mirror the themes of The Subtle Art of Not Giving A F*ck and include guided prompts that help you consider the deepest questions around emotions, values and purpose. Manson's wisdom is complimented with exercises to make you laugh, think, and grow, and his in-your-face attitude is only matched by his sincerity in wanting you to really wrestle with yourself and the things that matter.

Retouren boekhandels - Retours libraires – Returns policy booktrade

Alle aankopen worden beschouwd als vaste aankoop tenzij anders overeengekomen en als dusdanig vermeld op de factuur. Retouren zijn enkel mogelijk na drie maanden en voor 9 maanden en kunnen enkel gebeuren na voorafgaandelijke, schriftelijke aanvraag. De retourtoelating blijft één maand geldig en dient bij de retour gevoegd te worden. De retour gebeurt op risico van de klant en worden enkel aanvaard als ze ons in perfecte staat bereiken. Creditbedragen worden in mindering gebracht van nog te betalen saldi of toekomstige aankopen. Indien Exhibitions International buiten haar wil in de onmogelijkheid is om zelf het recht van retour in te roepen, onder meer bij faillissement van een uitgever of wanneer het boek in kwestie uitverkocht is gemeld, vervalt het recht van retour ook voor de klant en kunnen er geen retouren meer aanvaard worden van de betrokken publicaties.

Tous les achats sont considérés comme achat en compte ferme sauf accord mentionné sur la facture. Une demande de retour doit impérativement nous être adressée au préalable, par écrit. Il n'est cependant possible de retourner que les ouvrages livrés depuis un minimum de 3 mois et un maximum de 9 mois. L'autorisation de retour reste valable pendant un mois et doit être jointe lors de l'envoi du colis. Le retour se fait aux risques et aux frais du client. Seuls les retours arrivés dans un état impeccable seront acceptés. Les notes de crédits établies suite à la réception d'un retour de marchandises seront déduites des montants redevables des livraisons précédentes ou des commandes à venir. Dans le cas où Exhibitions International est elle-même et indépendamment de sa volonté dans l'impossibilité de faire valoir sa faculté de retour, entre autres pour cause de faillite d'un éditeur, ou si la publication en question a été annoncé comme épuisé, le client ne bénéficiera plus non plus de la faculté de retour et dès lors, plus aucun retour de cet éditeur, ou de cette publication ne pourra être accepté.

All orders are considered concluded sales and cannot be returned, unless otherwise stated. Returns can only be accepted after a written request to our office. The approval should be included in the shipment and is valid for one month. Returns are on the risk and costs of the customer. All books must arrive in mint condition. Shopworn or price-stickered books will not be accepted or credited. Titles cannot be returned before 90 days and after 9 months. Credit balances apply against future purchases only. In the event that Exhibitions International is itself and irrespective of its will, unable to assert its right of return, inter alia because of the bankruptcy of a publisher, or if the publication in question has been announced as being out of print, the customer will no longer benefit from the option of return and therefore no further returns from this publisher or this publication will be accepted.
