For as long as Olive could remember, she had longed to meet a tree.

But the last of the trees had died long ago.

Imagine a world without trees. A world that is in many ways like our world, but where magnificent canopies, tree climbing and leaves rustling in the breeze are only distant memories. Until a young girl comes along, a girl who is brave and spirited and willing to follow where her imagination takes her...

Praise for Together, the Sunday Times bestseller and Barnes & Noble Book of the Year finalist:

“An accurate and thoughtful account of one of the most challenging years in modern history.” – The Guardian

“Hawker’s images always seem to have just the right mixture of gravitas and sly, understated humour.” – The Scotsman
